

Gwin Estes Huey, D.D.S.

Dr. Gwin Estes Huey joined PURE Dental as an associate dentist in March 2009 when the eco-friendly practice opened its first location at Mockingbird Station in Dallas.

Since graduating with honors in 2005 from Texas A&M University Health Science Center – Baylor College of Dentistry, Dr. Huey has been practicing in North Texas. Her past work experience includes her father and grandfather, Drs. John Estes', private practice in Abilene, as well as Alfa Dental, Floss Dental and Herzog Dentistry in Dallas.

Dr. Huey graduated from Abilene Christian University in 2001 with a bachelor's degree in biology. While continuing her education at Baylor, she held leadership positions in organizations like Delta Sigma Delta Professional Dental Fraternity and Texas Association of Women Dentists Baylor College of Dentistry Chapter. Dr. Huey also was inducted into the Odontological Honor Society during that tenure.

Dr. Huey is currently a member of the Dallas County Dental Society, Texas Dental Association and American Dental Association. She has been involved in numerous professional organizations over the years, including the Texas Association of Women Dentists, American Association of Women Dentists, American Student Dental Association and Christian Medical-Dental Association. She also has volunteered with programs such as Tooth Talk for elementary school children as well as traveled to Zambia, Africa, on numerous dental mission trips as a member of the Zambia Medical Mission team, a cause close to her heart.

In her spare time, Dr. Huey enjoys spending time with her family and friends, traveling, running and horseback riding.
