

Kim Jackson, D.D.S.

A renowned dentist in North Texas, Dr. Kim Jackson joined PURE Dental in March 2009 to lead the new eco-friendly dental practice's first location at Mockingbird Station in Dallas. Dr. Jackson, who previously worked at Floss Dental, has been practicing dentistry in the Dallas area for more than three years since graduating from Texas A&M University Health Science Center – Baylor College of Dentistry. In that time, she built a substantial following because of her attention to detail, caring touch, dynamic personality and ability to connect with patients.

Dr. Jackson also has applied her passion and skill in dentistry on several dental mission trips to third-world countries, providing dental care for the underserved with groups like Serving HIM, an international healthcare ministry.

During her years at Baylor, from which she graduated at the top of her class, Dr. Jackson was an active member of professional organizations such as the Xi Psi Phi Dental Fraternity, International Association of Dental Research and Odontological Honor Society.

Dr. Jackson received her bachelor's degree in psychology, graduating Summa Cum Laude, in 2002 from Southern Methodist University. While at SMU, she was involved in on-campus organizations such as the Golden Key National Honor Society, Robert Stewart Hyer Society and Phi Beta Kappa Honor Society.

Currently, her professional affiliations include the American Dental Association, Texas Dental Association and Dallas County Dental Society. In March 2008, Dr. Jackson was recognized by Modern Luxury Dallas Magazine as one of the "Fresh Faces of Fashion" because of her professional success and sharp eye for fashion.

In her spare time, Dr. Jackson enjoys traveling, spending time with her family and friends, and planning her upcoming fall wedding to Dallas orthodontist, Dr. Jed Hildebrand.
